Aerial Sanders

As a driven, young entrepreneur my goal is to showcase my ability to style clients to their liking. I have a great eye for color, size and fit. I can make almost anything with my hands and I am very creative. I knit, I sew (machine and hand) and I sketch. I create day and night. I live fashion and clothes. I give 100% to making the client not only look good but feel good. I value customer service. I am a critical part of any team and know how to step up and lead when the opportunity presents itself. I am a go getter who complements strengths and diminish weaknesses. I am an asset.
